

Customer Information for Incoming Wire Transfers

The following information can be used to outline what is required when receiving an incoming wire.

Key Terms

ABA Routing / Transit Number: Used in the U.S. to identify financial institutions

SWIFT Code (also known as BIC – Bank Identification Code): Unique identification code for a bank / branch that will receive the wire transfer; used for an international wire transfer

The following recipient information may be required; obtain from the individual or bank receiving the funds:

For DOMESTIC WIRES:

- Recipient name
- Recipient account number
- Receiving bank's ABA routing / transit number
 - Chase's ABA Routing / Transit number is 021000021
- Recipient mailing address with city, state, country and postal ZIP code
- Other information (e.g., special instructions, beneficiary name)

For INTERNATIONAL WIRES:

- Recipient name: Central Pointe Management, LLC
- Recipient account number: 658752057
- Recipient Bank SWIFT: Chase Bank SWIFT code is: CHASUS33
- Recipient mailing address: 1004 Buenaventura Blvd, Kissimmee, FL 34743
- Other information (e.g., special instructions, beneficiary name)

Important!

- Incoming funds will be credited based solely on the account number you provide. Be certain you confirm that the account number is correct
- Be aware of wire scams, before you send a wire, call your recipient to confirm wire details, especially if you received payment information in an email
- Any error or incomplete information may result in the wire going to the wrong person or being delayed, which could result in the loss of funds
- Incoming funds may be deposited into the checking or savings account or may be applied as a payment to the loan or line of credit
- Incoming funds cannot be credited to a Chase Secure Banking account
- Incoming funds may take 1 full business day before the funds are received from the sender
- Sender's bank may request Chase's address for incoming wires; use the following address:
 - 270 Park Ave., New York, NY 10017